

Getting Involved

The work of UnitingCare could not take place without the valuable contribution of volunteers. All our agencies have extensive opportunities and specific programs to support those who would like to contribute in this important way.

Our service agencies depend on fundraising, donations and bequests to support the high level of service that they provide. For further information on how to do this please contact the agencies direct:

Blue Care

Lifeline Community Care

UnitingCare Health

Crossroads

Wesley Mission Brisbane